GOV'T WILL TRY TO SOLVE PROBLEM OF MISSING SHIPS

FOUR DEPARTMENTS OF THE GOVERNMENT TAKE UP THE INVESTIGATION TODAY

FIVE SHIPS ARE KNOWN TO HAVE DISAPPEARED MYSTERIOUSLY WITHIN A YEAR

RALPH COUCH, (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, June 21—Four departments of the federal government today took up the search for three missing American ships.

"The crews of the ships were never reported."

The mystery of the disappearance of the vessels was the more tantalizing because it all happened a short distance from Washington—off Cape Hatteras, on a calm sea and in clear weather.

A lone parrot was aboard the schooner. The parrot and a bottle containing a note, were the sole relics on the schooner, the Durring, which piled up on the coast on January 31. The note said the Durring had been captured by an oil burning chaser, and the crew and captain made prisoners. Wm. W. Wormell, of Portland, Oregon, was captain of the sailing vessel, and his daughter has been instrumental in arousing officials to an investigation. She has made an independent search the country over for her father.

Another young woman was instrumental with Miss Wormell in causing the investigation. She was Miss Barbara Baur, of Sabine, Texas, who thought there might be a connection between the wreck of the Durring, and the disappearance of the Hewitt, a steel vessel which left Sabine, Texas January 20, with a load of sulphur.

Miss Wormell has had the handwriting in the note brought in from the Durring identified as that of Chief Engineer Bates. The other two vessels which sailed out into oblivion were not identified by the commerce department official investigation today.

An examination of their records today lead commerce department officials to believe that a total of five ships have mysteriously disappeared off Cape Hatteras within the last few months. This is in addition to the wreck of the Carroll H. Durring, a schooner which sailed ashore with no one on board except a parrot.

The vessels missing are the Hewitt, from Texas, the Albany, which sailed from Norfolk last October and disappeared, the Yute which was last heard from by wireless on November 14. The names of the other two missing vessels are in possession of the commerce department, but officials are reluctant to give them out.

Other developments in the sea mystery which is engaging the attention of four government departments were:

The British admiralty and French ministry of marines are cooperating with this government in its investigation.

The state department has accepted the theory that "foul play" may account for the disappearance of the twelve men on the Deering.

New York, June 21—The steamer Wm. O'Brien was revealed today as one of the five American vessels which has disappeared mysteriously.

Lawrence Richey, investigator for Secretary Hoover, said the Wm. O'Brien was lost two months ago, apparently about seven hundred miles out. He is here searching in the shipping circles for any information regarding the lost vessels. Richey said the Wm. O'Brien started on a trip but was forced to put back following a dispute between the captain and chief engineer. With a new engineer it began the trip from which it never returned.

WHEN IT RULED THAT COMPANY MUST DEAL WITH RAILROAD UNION EXECUTIVES

(United Press)

Chicago, June 21—Railroad unions won a smashing victory before the United States railroad labor board today when it was ruled that the Pullman car company must deal with accredited representatives of railroad unions.

The board ruled that a wage reduction, which was accepted by representatives of an organization of employees formed by the company, was invalid.

The Pullman Car company, employing ten thousand men, is the only railroad industry that has organized a "company union."

This "union" has been fought by the railroad employees affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and the railroad brotherhoods.

The case arose when members of the "company union" agreed to a 12 per cent reduction last winter. Investigation by the board showed that a majority of the employees belonged to the accredited union, and therefore negotiations with the organization formed by the company did not count.

Venezuela Named After Venice.

Venezuela was named from the word Venice by Alonso de Ojeda, who found the Onotos, an extinct tribe of Indians, there in 1499. They were fishermen, and built their houses on piles in the water. Ojeda was reminded by their dwellings of Venice, so he named the country Venezuela.

NAVAL FORCES ARE ALL SET FOR BIG TEST OF STRENGTH

A. L. BRADFORD

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

On Board the U. S. Henderson off Hampton Roads—The ex-German U-boat 117 was sunk by naval planes sixty miles off Hampton Roads today.

The submarine sank after two attacks in which twelve bombs were dropped. Three bombs were dropped in the first attack made by three navy machines at 10:23. One direct hit was made. At 10:23 three planes again went to the attack and dropped nine bombs. One bomb hit the submarine just aft and the others dropped near by.

Six minutes after the bomb exploded on the submarine the vessel sunk. Lieutenant Colonel C. C. Culver, flier in an army plane and accompanied by an observed crashed into the sea near the U. S. Henderson, stationed a good distance from the target. Both men were picked from the water by a naval plane. Both escaped injury.

On Board the U. S. Henderson, off Hampton Roads, June 21—"The navy that swims and the navy that flies were all set today for their first test of strength. Fifty miles off Cape Charles lies the German submarine U-117.

Circling over Hampton Roads, gliding in the sunlight, are twenty-four airplanes which will try to sink the submarine with bombs dropped on it. If they fail the army airplanes are ready at Longley field, Virginia, to finish the job.

At a safe distance from the German U-boat is the Henderson, carrying officials, observers and newspaper men.

Today's test will be the first of a series arranged as an outcome of the controversy of the relative merits of the ships and airplanes as naval fighters.

Vice Admiral Hillary Jones, newly appointed commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet was in these waters today with the formidable part of his fleet.

Captain A. W. Johnson, commander of the Atlantic fleet air force was on the U. S. S. Shawmut near the German U-boat, directing operations in the air. Brigadier General Mitchell was in command of the army air force.

Destroyers were stationed every ten miles between the U-117 and Thimble Shoals lighthouse to be ready for rescue work in case of a mishap. Rescue airplanes also were ready at Hampton Roads and Longley field bases to take to the air in case of an accident.

The plane was landed at Hampton Roads without serious injury to members of the crew, although it was completely destroyed by fire. The craft carried three officers and seven men. The fire was said to have been caused by a gas leak. The plane carried bombs, but the fuses were fixed so as they would not explode when they struck water.

OLD AND NEW ORDER CONTEST FOR SUPREMACY

IN THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR—GOMPERS CANDIDACY REPRESENTING THE OLD

J. L. O'SULLIVAN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Denver, June 21—History flowed toward the mould of repetition today, as the new order challenged the old in organized labor.

Samuel Gompers, who directed the destiny of the American Federation of Labor for thirty-nine years, faced today his second serious challenge for leadership by the convention at Denver.

In contesting for the office today—the only time since 1894 that Gompers' position as head of the labor movement has been seriously threatened, is opposition by a coal miner, John L. Lewis.

During the time he headed the trade union movement Gompers built up the powerful organization. He was a slow and careful leader. His actions were never striking but he had confidence and sureness with which he gained the objective on every hand.

Lewis came to the head of the coal miners' strike in 1919. He rode roughly over the determined opposition of the federal government to prevent the strike. The miners gained the increase in wages which Lewis sought.

The support which each of the two leaders draw from delegates is in conformity in their methods of work. The careful slow movement of the older representatives will stand back of Gompers.

Lewis has the support of the younger fighting delegates, such as the machinists, the carpenters and the miners.

Revise Compensation Insurance Rates Downward

(United Press)

St. Paul, June 21—Workmen's compensation insurance rates in Minnesota will be revised downward, Gustaf Lindquist, state insurance commissioner, announced today.

The revision is already under way. The workmen's compensation insurance board has been working on the new rates and they will be made public soon. Insurance companies had expected increased rates.

The principal reason for the downward revision is the low rates on industrial accidents in Minnesota, Lindquist said. Insurance companies base their figures on national accident rates. Commissioner Lindquist said the state commission will only consider Minnesota figures.

DEATH LIST NOW REPORTED TO EXCEED 200—ENTIRE VILLAGES SUBMERGED

600 HOUSES SWEEP AWAY IN ONE TOWN—23 TOWNS ARE UNDER WATER

(United Press)

Tokio, Japan, June 21—Floods are sweeping large areas of Japan. The death list today approached two hundred.

Entire villages were submerged under fifteen feet of water in the Hita district. At Kyushu more than six hundred houses were washed away.

Heavy rains caused the floods. The district of Kyushu was inundated so quickly that thousands had narrow escapes. At least eighteen persons were drowned there. The flood quickly swept hundreds of lightly constructed dwelling houses into the torrent where they collapsed and were carried on to the sea in a mass of debris.

Bridges were torn out and swept away. In the Hita district the water spread more slowly filling the streets of many villages some of them to the depth of fifteen feet. Twenty-three villages were known to be under water. The inhabitants had taken to boats, some to precarious positions in trees and others were clinging to the roofs of cottages which threatened momentarily to leave their foundation.

Balance of Power.

"Balance of power" is an expression used to denote a principle in European politics that forbids any one nation to have such a preponderance of power as may endanger the independence of the rest. There was such a principle in the days of Athens, Sparta and Thebes and the rival states of Greece. It does not now play the part it did during the Eighteenth century and the first half of the Nineteenth.

Betty Came First.

Betty was humored in whatever she wanted, and knowing her fondness for pie her father often gave her his piece after she had eaten hers. On one such occasion a guest asked him if he did not like pie. Before he could answer Betty replied complacently: "Oh, he likes it all right, but you see, he likes me better'n pie."

"There are odd inconsistencies in physical courage, too," says a writer in Punch. "I know a V. I myself am moderately brave—I have been down stairs with only a poker to investigate noises in the night—but nothing would get me on to the back of a horse. Keeping Streets Clean

Mayor F. E. Little urged that the streets be kept clean and suggested that the council keep in its employ at least one street cleaner.

The mayor's action in naming a citizen as police without pay at Lum park was confirmed by the council.

Police Vacations

Dragging Timbers

Richard Ise claimed that people were dragging big timbers over Third Avenue paving and the paving should be protected. The matter was referred to the city engineer and street committee.

Vacating Street

An application to vacate part of Water street was filed with the council by Attorney L. B. Kinder. It was referred to the street committee and city engineer.

Gas Franchise

The gas franchise was discussed and is covered in another column of the Dispatch.

More Space

The water and light board was granted additional space for the display of its various kind of equipment and supplies.

Many requests are on file for street lights and the attention of the water and light board is to be called to several places where lights are requested.

Carl Zapffe, president of the water and light board, suggested metering the city hall for lights. It was referred to the light committee.

Alderman Michael said the council should state definitely to the water and light board what was expected from the board.

Stein & Nelson were not given permission for "no parking" signs near the Ransford hotel.

Minimum Wage Law

The city engineer reported on Ash avenue and gave his estimates on repairs and the kind to be made.

The city engineer said the Tenth street sewer was about completed.

City Engineer Campbell reported on his consultation with the district engineer of the Northern Pacific railway company regarding locating the city warehouse on the "Y", and said the conclusion reached was that it was not deemed favorable to construct on such a location. Other locations were suggested and the city engineer will look them up.

Paving

On paving Sixth street from Front to the Northern Pacific railway crossing Alderman Michael of the committee asked for further time which was granted.

The attention of the council was called to city waste, refuse, etc., and the fact that the old scales were out of commission. The council decided to remove the little scale house.

The attention of the water and light board was called to repairing the street corner at Maple and Ninth streets.

White Park

The property committee reported favorably on White Park improvements and that water lines and electric lights were to be placed as asked by the Chamber of Commerce playgrounds committee.

Alderman Cordes called attention to Lum park, that some of the bath houses for women were not arranged well for their accommodation.

Alderman Michael wanted the rest room in the city hall arranged for clinics. Alderman Quanstrom wished the rest room put in suitable condition for the purpose originally designated.

There was still considerable undisposed business before the council and the expressed intention appeared that an adjourned meeting would be necessary to complete it.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

$100 NEEDED TO PAY EXPENSES

Three Committees Appointed to Raise Funds, G. E. Lowe Treasurer, Rev. F. M. Ohms, Chairman

A daily vacation Bible school will be conducted in Brainerd from June 20 to July 2. The sessions of the school will be held in the Whittier school. It was first intended to hold the school in tree centers, but this proved to be impractical at this time. It is also intended to carry on the lower grades only in the Lowell school.

Full details concerning this movement will be given through the proper officials, suffice it to say here that it will afford those who make use of it, a splendid opportunity to increase their knowledge of the Bible.

It will cost some money to conduct this school. While all who are connected with the school are freely giving their services, there will be expenses for materials and books such as are necessary to properly carry on the work. It is estimated that about $100.00 will be enough to pay all the bills.

The finance committee consisting of Rev. F. M. Ohms and G. E. Lowe, who is also treasurer of the general committee having this project in hand, make an appeal to the citizens of Brainerd regardless of denominational affiliation, to contribute toward the expense of this school.

To facilitate the matter of raising the necessary funds, the following have been appointed to have charge of this in their respective parts of the city:

On the south side Mrs. Carl Bentley, 623 So. 9th street.

Northeast, Mrs. M. B. Congdon, 522 4th Ave.

These will appoint such assistants as will enable them to properly do the work. The finance committee hopes that there may be a generous response to their solicitation. Checks should be made payable to G. E. Lowe, treasurer, as stated by the chairman, Rev. F. M. Ohms.

Favorable Report
Those who are acquainted with the zealousness of our professional attitude toward each commission are pleased to report to you in our favor

ALONE FOR EIGHTEEN YEARS

On San Nicholas island, which is uninhabited, a party of sea-otter hunters, landing to chance their luck, found, to their amazement, the imprint of human feet on the sandy shore—imprints freshly made. They scattered in search. But, the wind shifting and commencing to blow hard, they had to regain their vessel before the maker of the marks could be found. It was undeniable, however, a human being lived on this bleak, wind-blown island of sand and tall brushwood.

On returning to the mainland they reported the strange discovery, but nothing was done until a Roman Catholic priest was so moved by the news that he persuaded the captain of a small schooner to sail with him for San Nicolas. After two days' searching he discovered this lonely Crusoe—the first of a new kind. For he found inside a low hut of driftwood a woman more like a beast than a person.

She was clad in otter skins, and the feathered skins of the sea-fowl, and her companion was an otter, which she had caught very young and tamed.

The priest with difficulty got her story, for she had almost forgotten how to speak. Many years previously the small tribe of Indians to which she belonged—inhabitants of San Nicolas from time past—had been shifted by the government to the mainland. As they were being taken on board, her baby had fallen into the sea, and she had leaped after him, and in the dusk had been given up as drowned. She reached the shore, however, to find the child was dead. In utter loneliness she had lived there for 18 years.

Whale of a Fish Story.

"It's a whale," more than one visitor asserted who visited Monk's wharf here recently. They were wrong. It was a sturgeon. From the tip of its tail to its snout it measured just 13 feet, and it weighed 988 pounds. This monster fish was taken with a drift net in the Pitt river by an Indian fisherman, and is said to be the second largest ever taken.—New Westminster Correspondence Toronto Globe.

Noah's Oversight.

"Don't forget to feed and water the canary birds," said Mrs. Meekton as she started for the train.
"I won't, Henrietta," replied Leonard; "though I can't help wishing sometimes that Noah, when planning to perpetuate animal life, had decided to leave canary birds out of the ark."

Immunity of Teak and Cypress.

Of the many timbers tested in a Japanese investigation, only teak and cypress pine escape attack by termites. The immunity seems to be due neither to hardness nor weight, but to the presence of some repellent—perhaps the large percentage of benzine extract of these two woods. In Formosa, camphor green oil gives the surest protection against termites.

There are Many.

There are many who talk on from ignorance rather than from knowledge, and who find the former an inexhaustible fund of conversation.—Hazlitt.

AMUSEMENTS

"Chickens" at the Lyceum

Douglas MacLean went to the bar with another comedy hit when his latest picture, "Chickens," an excellent Paramount-Ince production, was shown to a delighted audience at the Lyceum theatre yesterday and will be repeated again tonight. It is a delicious comedy packed with laughs—and a nightmare that is irresistibly funny.

Mr. MacLean has the role of a young man who suddenly is impoverished and becomes a chicken raiser. His blooded stock apparently is poisoned and his sole source of income cut off. Then follows a turbulent night of dream-haunted slumber.

In many respects this is a remarkable comedy. Gladys George is the leading woman and the support generally is excellent. It includes such players as Claire McDowell, Charles Mailles, Edith Yorke and Al Wilson. The comedy is a picturization of Herschel S. Hall's famous story, "Yancona Yillies."

"Ducks and Drakes"

A jazzy comedy will be "Ducks and Drakes," Bebe Daniels' newest offering which will be shown tomorrow and Thursday at the Lyceum so Manager Hiller promises, but there is harmony as well as jazz in the production, for it has not merely one but a quartette of leading men in support of the piquant star. They are Jack Holt, William E. Lawrence, Edward Martindel and Wade Boteler. Harmony? You'll say so.

PIONEER FARMER CALLED TO REWARD

William Gildart of South Long Lake Township, Passed Away Tuesday Morning

MEMBER SCHOOL BD. 20 YEARS
Gave Site for District School No. 30.
Known as Gildart School on 13th Street Road

William Gildart, age 63, a pioneer farmer of Crow Wing county passed away at his home in South Long Lake township Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock, death being due to acute kidney trouble. He took to his bed about two weeks ago, failing rapidly.

He was born in Hunterstown, Quebec, Canada and was married in Brainerd to Miss Lydia DeChaine. He leaves a wife, two sons and eight daughters. All were at his home when the end came except William Gildart Jr., an ex-service man who had found employment in Tacoma, Wash., and who, on his way home, was detained at Billings, Montana; also a daughter, Mrs. Will Thomson of Tacoma, who was unable to come.

He leaves two sisters, one in Coe-man, Wis., and one in Canada. Mr. Gildart homesteaded his farm on the South 13th street road, and had brought it to a high state of cultivation. He gave the site for the school on his farm in district No. 20 and the school was popularly known as the Gildart school. For 20 years he had been a member of the school board. He served 12 years as a town board officer.

As a member of the Catholic church he was an earnest and faithful churchgoer. In Brainerd he held membership in Brainerd Camp No. 2337 of the Modern Woodmen.

The funeral services will be held from St. Francis Catholic church in Brainerd and will be announced as soon as all relatives are communicated with.

Mr. Gildart was an honest, kindly man, gentle and God-fearing, always ready to help a neighbor. No one ever appealed to him in vain. In stormy seasons in the early years any motorist was always sure of aid from him. He was always a champion of Crow Wing county and believed it was the finest and best spot in all America and that any farmer could succeed if he only put time and attention to farming.

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved:
That whereas, the Great and Supreme Ruler, saw fit to remove from the home of one of our most respected members, Mr. Mons Mahlum, of Brainerd, Minnesota, his son John, a young man in the prime of life, beautiful in character, and stalwart in manhood. A young man, who at the call of his country did offer to that country his blood, his life. A young man who did give his life and whose earthly remains have now been returned from the Sunny soil of France to this his native land. A hero son, mourned by his own beloved parents and still by every one of us for whom he gave his life in sacrifice of our interests, yes freedom.
Be it resolved, that we as fellow mourners extend to his father and mother and sisters and brothers our deepest and heartfelt sympathy, in this time of their sorrow.
Be it also resolved that a copy of this resolution be printed in the Brainerd papers, which is representative of the people of the City of Brainerd in which was the home of this departed soldier boy.

Where "Pep" is Useless.

The business day is short in India; it seldom begins before 11 o'clock in the morning. There is a "tiffin" or lunch period, probably two hours long, followed by an early closing. The American salesman, accustomed to jumping from town to town on fast trains, seeing customers early and late, and sending daily orders to the "house," is hardly the one to tackle the deliberateness of India, where the "house" is best forgotten in the sales talk and where the potency of the first person singular is undiminished.

Seed Wheat Not Easily Killed.

Scientific farmers will assure you that the seed of wheat loses its life within, at most, ten years, but Dr. Asa Gray wrote: "In ordinary cases leguminous seeds have longest preserved germinating power; in some very well-authenticated cases up to seventy or perhaps one hundred years. Nearly uniform temperature, darkness and either dryness or burial beyond atmospheric influence must favor the prolongation of vitality."

How Eskimos Trap Wolves.

Wolves make deadly ravages among the dogs and reindeer of the Eskimo. But the Eskimo now captures wolves in large numbers by means of big hut-like traps made of ice. The front of the hut, which is of ice, slides up and down. Inside the hut is a joint of raw meat, suspended by a piece of rope to the sliding front, and when a wolf tears down the meat the front drops into place and he is caught.

GAS RATE THOUGHT TO BE HIGH ONE

Special Council Committee on Gas Negotiations Reports Through Mayor F. E. Little

FRED W. FREESE IS WIRED
No Answer Was Received to Telegram Conferences are to be Continued by Committee

Chairman Mayor F. E. Little, of the special committee on the gas negotiations, read to the council Monday evening the telegram sent Fred W. Freese, who desires a franchise in Brainerd. The telegram follows:
Committee has heard from several Minnesota cities having similar conditions to Brainerd and find $2.50 $2.60 the highest paid. This rate seems to be adequate for successful operation.

"Much local objections to any service charge. General conditions of franchise satisfactory. Some changes necessary, particularly readjustment of rates a few years later.

"Committee does not feel that they can recommend franchise as you ask. Feel that there must be some reduction. Shall we ask council for adjourned meeting upon your return or is $2.80 final."

Signed Gas Committee,

F. E. LITTLE,

Chairman

This telegram was sent June 17 to Mr. Freese at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and to date no reply had been received.

At the council meeting Monday evening Attorney M. E. Ryan appeared for Fred W. Freese and said concessions would be made insofar that the 50c service charge would be reduced to 25c a month, the $3 cut-in charge reduced to $2, and no other could be made. Mr. Ryan said he thought Mr. Freese would not wish to reduce the rate.

Mayor F. E. Little followed by reading gas statistics of other cities, costs of operation, costs of gas, etc.

The committee of the council asked for further time and asked the council for an adjourned meeting to further consider the proposed gas franchise. Mr. Ryan said he wanted a definite date set for the meeting.

Alderman Michael compared proposed local rates with those of other cities and said the suggested rate of $2.80 plus a service charge was too high.

On motion of Alderman Holmstrom, seconded by Alderman Lyons, the committee was given further time to continue its investigations. President Strickler praised the mayor and special committee for the energy with which they had taken up their task.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

How Much Should You Pay For a Fine Car?

So far as prices are concerned, the Paige 6-66 is quite obviously the greatest dollar-for-dollar value on the American market. It is not only legitimately priced, but it is actually selling for from one to three thousand dollars less than its nearest competitors.

We respect this competition but as business men must insist that the discrepancy is altogether unjustified. Unless 6-66 prices are vastly increased, the higher priced cars must ultimately reduce. This appears to be the only fair and sensible conclusion.

At any rate, please consider this one fact: You can today buy a Paige car with a sense of absolute security because you are buying on the new readjustment level. There can be no sudden depreciation of your investment—no "price cuts" to meet competitive standards.

Paige is at rock bottom in price and peak position in quality. For that reason it is a safe, sane and profitable investment.
